

2018 YKACL Online Art Auction!

Bid early and bid often: YKACL.ca

by YKACL staff

MONA THRASHER, Graeme Shaw and Louie Nigiyok are just a few of the renowned artists whose prints, photographs and original paintings are on the virtual auction block today!

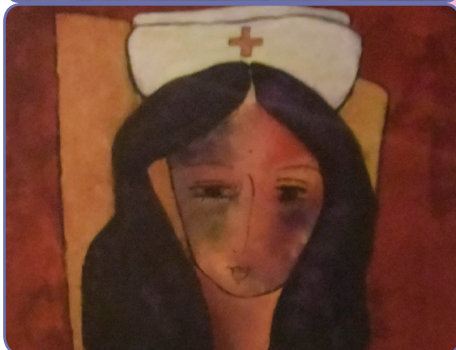

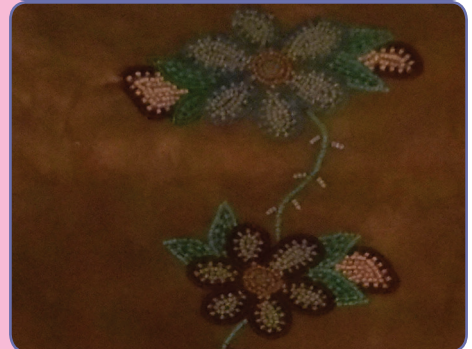

The third annual YKACL Online Art Auction accepts bids on close to 50 pieces until 7:30 p.m. on Friday, December 7.

"This is a great selection of fine art and Northern memorabilia. It made me really nostalgic looking through this collection of art works, many by artists who are no longer with us. The auction is a great opportunity to find a Northern treasure and support an amazing organization that contributes so much to our community," said Lisa Seagrave, owner of Gallery of the Midnight Sun.

View the auction items on display at Centre Square Mall from Nov. 21 - Dec. 7 (near Tim Hortons).

Funds raised will support our many programs, including the YKACL Youth Groups, Youth Employment Services, and Supported Living Services.

YKACL Healthy pregnancy campaign expands with mukoxen baby bags!

by YKACL staff

YKACL'S 2018/2019 Healthy Pregnancy Campaign kicked off last month when staff distributed pregnancy test kits, condoms and information kits to patrons of local pubs and nightclubs.

This month staff are preparing to distribute baby bags that contain health information for moms-to-be and their friends.

An image of muskoxen appears on the baby bags and infant onesies that make up the package.

The muskoxen symbol represents YKACL's message to moms-to-be and their loved ones and peers. Muskoxen protect their babies from danger by forming a circle around
