SUPPORTED LIVING

FRIGHTFUL FUN!

Supported Living households host Halloween Costume Parade on Zoom!

by Inclusion NWT Staff

SUPPORTED LIVING CLIENTS and staff enjoyed Covid-cautious Halloween events on Oct. 30 and Oct. 31.

Clients join with each other and the community to celebrate special occasions year-round, even amid the strict safety precautions during this pandemic.

Plans are afoot for more safe special events and virtual gatherings for the upcoming holiday season!

KINETA MICHEL, LEFT, AND JUSTINE CUVELIER staged a haunted driveway for trick or treaters, alongside Supported Living staff.

SPOOKY STROLL!

LOIC BURNS walked the length of Pumpkin Lane in the first week of November, alongside Supported Living Worker Piyush Gosain.

PERSONAL GROWTH

Why I work at Inclusion NWT...

by Bryan Tuyishime

WHY DO I work at Inclusion NWT? The answer is quite simple: it doesn't feel like work. The atmosphere, the clients, and the staff are all so welcoming and joy-inducing.

Inclusion NWT is more to me than just a job, it's become my life. The clients we support mean the world to me. Their carefree, live-in-the-moment approach to life is something I admire. I learn just as much from them as they do from me.

Every day I find myself taking on a new challenge I wouldn't otherwise, because that's what Inclusion is all about. As staff, we support and try to promote growth within our clients, but we ourselves grow in the process.

Heavyweight help!

by Inclusion NWT Staff

OUR SERVICE TEAMS recycled more than 145 kg of refundable beverage containers in October.

Clients picked up most of the recyclables from area businesses and households, but some business owners and residents dropped off their recycling at the Abe Miller Building.

Our refundable recycling service is 100% free, including free pickup on weekdays.

To arrange pick up, contact us at:

WELCOME TO WORK, KYLE!

KYLE STEWART is the newest member of the Inclusion NWT Business Services Team!

Kyle has performed a wide variety of roles in his first weeks of work through our Skills Training & Community Inclusion service, including postering services, shredding and courier deliveries.

The Skills Training & Community Inclusion service provides job training and employment opportunities for adults with disabilities as well as other activities that enhance their daily living, social and literacy skills. We place a heavy emphasis on community involvement. Participants are involved in community social and recreation activities to increase their opportunities to contribute and be included in our community.

THANK YOU!

THE GIFT OF WARMTH

Medicine Shoppe Pharmacy donates winter gear

by Inclusion NWT staff

MEDICINE SHOPPE PHARMACY contacted Inclusion NWT to offer a very helpful donation this fall: funding for quality outdoor work-wear for The Odd Job Squad!

The company's donation allowed The Squad to purchase three complete sets of work-wear, including brand new jackets and coveralls.

The Odd Job Squad shovels driveways and sidewalks for seniors (age 65+) FREE in Yellowknife, Ndilo and Dettah.

To hire The Squad, please contact the Hotline by calling or texting: (867) 445-6967

Inclusion NWT news

We appreciate your support

WEAVER & DEVORE is a big supporter of our community! Inclusion NWT appreciates the generosity of this longstanding family-owned company.

Lest we forget

INCLUSION NWT clients and staff offered poppies by donation at the Abe Miller Building in the lead-up to Remembrance Day, in co-operation with 825 RCACS Yellowknife ELKS.

Supported Living clients and staff observed the wreath-laying ceremony from home on the morning of Nov. 11.
